PRODUCT CATALOGUE

COMPANY BACKGROUND

Established in 1984 in the agriculturally rich region of Limpopo Province, Miami Canners has grown from a small operation known for its delicious jams into one of South Africa's leading producers of preserved foods. The warm, humid summers and mild winters of the Limpopo area provide an ideal environment for a wide variety of agricultural products, which Miami Canners has expertly utilized to diversify its offerings over the years.

Initially focused on jam production, the company expanded in the early 1990s by introducing pickled vegetables, such as beetroot, gherkins, and pickled onions, into glass bottle packaging. This innovation marked a significant step in the company's growth, allowing Miami Canners to establish itself as a major player in the preserved food market.

By 1996, Miami Canners had further diversified its product range by developing a line of Mango Atchar, capitalizing on the high-quality mangoes available from local farmers. This range has since expanded, and today Miami Canners is recognized for its extensive offerings, including Mango and Vegetable Atchar, Pickled Gherkins, Pickled Onions, Sweet Tomato Relishes, Piccalilli, and canned Tomato & Onion mixes.

Now, over 30 years later, Miami Canners is a major supplier to all major retailers across Southern Africa, known for its commitment to quality and its ability to innovate within the food preservation industry.

ATCHAR RANGE

At Miami, we take pride in crafting Atchar that's as authentic as it is premium — rooted in tradition, but elevated through quality.

Our Atchar begins with locally sourced green mangoes, hand-picked at the perfect stage of ripeness from trusted farms across South Africa. By working closely with local growers, we ensure that only the freshest, firmest fruit goes into every batch — preserving the rich, tangy base that Atchar is known for. From there, our team blends in a signature mix of coarsely cut vegetables and aromatic spices, creating bold flavours with just the right amount of heat and crunch. Prepared in small batches and packed fresh, our Atchar delivers consistency, quality, and character in every jar.

At Miami, we don't just bottle Atchar — we preserve a legacy of flavour, built on local partnerships, honest ingredients, and a deep respect for the product's roots.
